

Dream Makers, TREND SETTERS

THE RECENT MERGER OF TWO VETERAN wedding planning companies – Heaven's Gift and Wedding Concierge – spells good news for soon-to-be-wed couples. Aimed at providing a comprehensive suite of services for all levels of planning needs, Heaven's Gift Wedding Concierge is well equipped to create your dream wedding.

Individually, Hannah Chong of Heaven's Gift and Kim Tay of Wedding Concierge each have a unique set of strengths that make them the successful wedding planners they are. Hannah is known for her creative energy and intuitive know-how in putting together one-of-a-kind celebrations. She believes there are no fixed templates for weddings or parties, and is particularly skilled in creating lavish themed celebrations. As for Kim, she is a meticulous planner who has believe in training new talents with proper business protocols, not shortcuts. Wedding planning is a professional business just like any other, and it requires diligence and hard work beyond just being passionate.” With the same goals in mind, they decided to combine their visions and set the next trend and revolution in the wedding planning industry.

At Heaven’s Gift Wedding Concierge, they believe every couple deserves to have their dream wedding, no matter what their budget may be. This is one of the reasons why they came together to make wedding planning affordable at all levels. The dynamic duo also believes a successful wedding goes beyond just breathtaking aesthetics.

For a wedding to be truly memorable, a skilled planner has to take care to understand the couple’s personalities, desires and expectations. After knowing the couple’s dreams and needs, it takes a strong team to manage the expectations well, from conceptualisation to execution. When you engage Heaven’s Gift Wedding Concierge, you’re getting far more than just creative ingénue or a well-oiled administrative machine – you are getting a passionate team who’s dedicated to making your wedding dreams come true. All you need to do to be candid about your requirements, and leave everything into their capable hands.

THE ANSWER TO ALL YOUR WEDDING NEEDS

Just think of Heaven’s Gift Wedding Concierge as the one-stop solution for today’s modern brides. In addition to their planning division, they also launched their stylish e-boutique “Celebrate Heaven”, retailing exquisite wedding must-haves from International labels such as Mischka Aoki couture flower girl dresses, Talking Tables design-led paper tableware, and their very own label of handcrafted bridal bouquets, ring pillows, and accessories – all at very reasonable prices. So if you are looking for Dream Makers and Trends Setters for your wedding, look no further, Heaven’s Gift Wedding Concierge is the place to start creating your very own celebration.

developed a systematic framework over the years to ensure every wedding is pulled off flawlessly and without a hitch. With the two merging their strengths as one, you get an exceptional wedding planning team that’s a force to be reckoned with.

A DYNAMIC DUO

When asked how they came to be business partners, Hannah explained, “I’ve always believed that in any industry, we need to build a strong community of like-minded entrepreneurs. The true way to grow the community is to willing to be open about sharing knowledge and growing resources together. It takes more guts to be transparent and share than to be on your own.” In fact, most of the friendships Hannah has developed with other wedding planners began when she took the first step to recommend clients to the other planners without hesitation. This was how Hannah and Kim became friends.

Hannah says, “There is a big enough market for everyone. Instead of competing with each other by pricing or using wrong business tactics, we should be developing our unique strengths to draw the right clients that will appreciate our work. Kim adds, “I always
