

"I felt absolute joy when we were pronounced husband and wife. It marked the start of a new chapter of life together."

JOYCE & SEBASTIEN

The moment we were pronounced husband and wife was pure bliss for me. My next favourite moment was when Sebastien kissed me after we exchanged rings at our sunset solemnisation with a string quartet at The Rocks at Shangri-La's Rasa Sentosa Resort & Spa, Singapore. Sebastien's favourite time: When his heart started racing as I was walking with my dad to meet him to take our vows. It was all so romantic and beautiful. This joyous occasion was witnessed by our families and friends, so we were surrounded by a crowd of smiling faces. For us, it marked the beginning of a new chapter of life together – and building our own family.

The ceremony and the dinner were held at two stunning locations. After our vows at The Rocks, we had dinner at the Horizon Pavilion ballroom, which has a great view of the beach. Both were dressed with flowers to go with the Elegant Romance theme we'd chosen, and we could all see the beautiful sunset, thanks to The Rocks' location by the sea. The pictures captured all the endearing and fun moments of our big day, which we will treasure.
