“Bold, beautiful, warm and undeniably passionate, red is the colour of love! When used as part of a theme, it should be rich and fiery.”

– Hannah Chong, Director, Heaven’s Gift Wedding Concierge

From left: Kartoe, a couture invitation card designer from Indonesia, handmade the paper poppies in this spread and scripted the text for the menu cards. We love how the reds of the tableware, flowers, menu cards and butterflies with Swarovski crystals blended seamlessly together. Also the way Green Point Flowers created a sea of fluttering red petals reflected in the mirrored tabletop by simply placing clusters of poppies and ferns in glass vials. Bold centerpieces at both ends of the long table anchored the lavish display of red flowers and sparkling crystals.

Opposite: Kartoe also created this gorgeous suite of wedding stationery with metal die-cutting.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a white lace wedding gown with a long train and a delicate headpiece, stands in a restaurant setting. She is looking over her shoulder. In the background, a table is set with a black tablecloth, a large arrangement of red flowers, and several clear acrylic chairs. The ceiling features a decorative, perforated metal structure that allows light to filter through in a patterned way. The floor is made of dark wood tiles.

“This gorgeous Galia Lahav gown from The Proposal would make any bride look stunningly elegant in our setting.”

“Our concept is for a bride who wants a creative theme with fine details. She is a woman who trusts us to bring her vision to life.”

Mad About Sucre created this cake with poppies and pearls.
